ISPROVAL DESPATCHES TO EVENING THE BORAPH.] WASHINGTON, February 19. Sarratt-His Voyage to America-His Condition, and the Prospect of his Trial.

The despatches of Commander Jeffries, of the Swatars, were read by Secretary Welles this morning, stating that he left Villafranca on the swalars, were read by Secretary Welles this morning, stating that he left Villafranca on the 3th of January, and reached Madrid on the 23d of January, which place he left the same day, after coaling. Very rough weather was experienced during the passage, but no damage was sustained by the vessel. Prior to the arrival of the Swatara instructions were issued to Commodore Radford, at the Navy Yard, directing him to have her anchored in the stream, and allow no communication with her.

The Swatara lies in the stream about fifty yards from the wherves of the Navy Yard, and up to noon to day there had been no communication whatever with her, or to the shore, except that Commander Jeffries reported to Admiral Radford a short time after her arrival, and sent his despatches to the Department.

This morning, a bench warrant was issued by

This morning, a bench warrant was issued by District Supreme Court to Marshal Gooding, instructing him to take Surratt in custody. An iron-clad cell, at the City Jail, designed especially for desperate criminals, has been prepared for his reception, and the Marshal will take charge of him so soon as the Navy Department shall give official notification that it is ready to turn him over to the civil authorities,
The mail for the Swatara was this morning received on board by being handed on with a line. The prisoner Surratt is said to be confined below decks, strongly guarded, and is in excellent health. He says little, and positively denies that he is John Surratt. He wears a suit of sailor's clothing, his Zouave uniform being out of repair. Admiral Goldsborough did not come out on the Swatara, as stated, but remained on the Fiagship at Lisbon.

The Committee of Conference.

The Speaker has appointed Messrs, Stevens' Shellabarger and Blaine as a Committee of Con-ference on the part of the House on the disagreement to the Senate amendment to the Re-construction bill. The Senate, a few minutes before 1, received notice of the action of the House, and are now debating whether they will appoint a Committee of Conference on their

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

Senate.

Washington, February 19.—Petitions and memorials were introduced and referred. Among others, one by Mr. Summer (Mass.), asking that colored troops in the regular army be efficiented by colored men. Referred to the Military Committee.

Mr. Summer also presented the proceedings of the Southern loyalists in lavor of the Louisiana bill and against the Sherman bill of the Senate. Ordered to lie on the table.

The Clerk of the House announced the agreement of the House to the report of the Conference Committee on the bill to regulate the tenurs of office. It now goes to the President.

Mr. Summer offered a resolution calling upon the President to inform the Senate if there has been any correspondence between the Department of State and the Minister resident as Portugal with reference to his scalary or compensation. Also, to inform the Senate II such Minister has received any compensation for his services since the act of last summer denying such compensation, and if so, out of what foud he has been paid. The resolution was agreed to.

Mr. Conness (Cal.) moved to take up the bill to grant tilles to land in the basin of Santa Claus, California.

Mr. Summer said he should object, if it took any time, as there was a bill of great political pregney pending in the Senate, known as the Louisiana bill, which it was important to pass.

Mr. Morgan (N. Y.) called up the bill amendatory of the act to previde for the safety of the lives of passengers on board of vessels propelled in whole of in part by steam, to regulate the salaries of sallors, of steam-boat inspectors, and for other purposes, which was considered and passed.

The bill provides that section 6th of the act referred to be so amended that all vessels navigating the waters of the United States, except vessels subject to a foreign nower and engaged in foreign trade, not owned by a clitizen of the United States, habil be subject to regulations consistent therswith, established for the government of steam vessels in passing, as provided in the 2th section of the not relating to steam vessels, approved August 39, 1852, and every neagoing steam vessels, subject to the navigation laws of the United States, and to the regulations aforesuid, shall, when under way, except on high seas, be under the control of pilots, licensed by inspectors of steam vessels, vessels of other countries and public vessels of the United States only excepted.

Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to annul or affect any regulation established by State law requiring vessels entering or leaving a port in said State to take a pilot duly licensed by the laws of state state, or of a State situate upon the waters of the same port.

Mr. Sherman called up the House bill to restore Lieutenant Joseph P. Tyffe to the active list of the sawy, which was passed.

The Clerk of the House announced the action of the House on the bill to provide a more efficient government for the insurrectionary States.

Mr. Hendricks (Ind.) called up a bill to restore Lieutenant Comminder Breese of the navy to the active list, which was passed, after an expression of disapproval from Mr. Grimes.

He should object to any compromise that could be effected.

The result reached by the Senate on this subject was one of great manimity on this, the R publican side of the Senate, and was hailed with acclamation by the press and people of the country. He hoped the proposition would be discussed in open accession, since the House had arrived at its conclusion. He (Conness) was in favor of laying this bitt on the table, and of taking up the Louislana bill and adapting it to all the Rebei States.

Mr. Stewart asked if it was in order to continue to insist without asking a Conference Committee.

Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, said it was in order to divide the motion of Mr. Williams, The Senate might even go so far as to insist upon its amendment with an amendment.

Mr. Williams did not know upon what authority Mr. Conness has confidence in a Conterence Committee. He thought that because the bill was important, there was more need of observing the usual rules of the body. It could do no harm to try. If the report of the Conference Committee was not a tested down.

ar. Summer advocated the proposition for a Conterence Committee as the only way of accomplishing the desired results.

Mr. Pemeroy did not think it possible to pass an acceptable bill at thi stage of the session with or without a Conference Committee.

Mr. Fessenden said, as he understood it, the bill
falled in the House because the Blaine amendment, as redrawn, as thought not to afford sufficient protection to loyal men. This could be remedied in a Conference Committee. He concurred in the belief that the amendment did not go far enough in the matter of safeguards.

He preferred the Military bill as it came from the House. He was unwilling to take the responsibility of insisting on the Senate amendments, as it might lead to the deleat of the bill. If the Conference Committee did not bring in a satisfactory report, the Senate could disagree to it and call for another Committee. He felt that the wisest thing to do would be to see if something could not be arrived at satisfactory to both Houses.

Mr. Howard regretted that Mr. Fessenden had not Mr. Howard regretted that Mr. Fessenden had not stated his objection to the Riaine amendment while the bill was under discussion in the Seante. He (Mr. Howard) was unwilling to trust this important sub-ject to a Committee of Conference.

Mr. Schenck, from the Committee of Conference on the bill to regulate the tenure of office, made a report the same that was acted on yesterday in the Senate, making the provisions of the bill apply to Cabinet efficers who cannot be removed from office during the term of the President who appoints them, except with the consent of the Senate. The vote was taken by yeas and pays, agreeing to the report, and it was agreed to, yeas 112, pays 46. A strictly party vote.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

HARRISBURG. February 19.—Petitions were presented by different Senators from various religious societies, churches, and Sunday schools in the interior counties of this State, against running passenger cars in Philadelphia on Sunday.

The following bills were presented;—
By Mr. Bigham, to extend the use of the metric system of weights and measures: also for the better authentication of letters of attorney.

By Mr. Browne, or Lawrence, to incorporate the Quaker City Barge City.

By Mr. Connell, to repeal the tax on the sales of loans and stocks by auctioneers in Philadelphia and Pittsburg, also releasing the Corporation's stock from taxation for county purposes, when real estate dividends (and bonds of the Corporation are already taxed.

Mr. Wallace offered the following:—

Resolved—First, That the Constitution and laws of the United States, made in pursuance thereof, are the supreme laws of the land, and extend over every cursen of the Republic in every portion thereof.

Second, That the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus ought not to be suspended when Courts are open and the civil law in full force.

Third, That no person shall be held to answer for crime unless on a presentment or indictment by a Grind Jury, and not be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law.

Fourth, That peace exists, that the right of trial by jury should remain inviolate in every part of the Republic; and the military power should now, in all cases, be in strict subordination to the civil power.

Mr. White moved to refer the above to the Committee on Federal Relations, which was agreed to—the Mr. Wallace offered the following:-

tee on Federal Relations, which was agreed to-the Democrats voting no.

A resolution was introduced to obtain two hundred copies of the Legislative Hand Book, which was opposed by Mr. Ridgway, on the ground that the State should commence a system of economy in printing. He gave it as his opinion, that within ten years the Commonwealth had spent thousands of thousands of dollars in this way.

Commonwealth had spent thousands of thousands of dollars in this way.

The resolution was withdrawn.

A message was received from the Governor vetoing an act to incorporate the Sisters of Mercy, of Philadelphia, on the ground that the Courts have the power to grant such charters.

The Senate sustained the veto.

Also, a message from the Governor, vetoing an act to incorporate the Catholic Philopatrian Institute, of Philadelphia, for the same reason. The Senate also sustained this veto.

Mr. Donovan, representing the two institutions above mentioned, voted against sustaining the veto.

mentioned, voted against sustaining the veto.
On motion of Mr. White, the documents connected with a certain bill regulating the passage of lumber down the Susquebanea, approved in 1865, were ordered to be laid before the Senate. An act relative to the Agricultural College of Pennsylvania was passed finally.

The Prisoner Surratt.

Washington, February 19.-The Swatara still lies off the Navy Yard with Surratt on board. No communication from the shore is allowed with the vessel, excepting by parties having authority through the Navy Department. It is understood the Cabinet will consider to-day nnderstood the Cabinet will consider to-day the question as to the proper plan for the safe keeping of the prisoner, and other subjects in that connection. A cell has already been prepared in the jall for his reception, to which he will probably soon be transferred, under the custody of the U.S. Marshal. The Swatara left Villa Franca with Surratt, and not Lisbon, as was reported, and stopped for a short time at Madeira to procure coal, during her passage home.

The United States vs. Peter S. Baer. The defendant in this case was charged with naving in his possession and passing a counterfell United States Treasury note of the denomination of $20, with intent to cheat and defraud the United States. The allegation of the United States was:—That during last November, John T. Foure, an operator in the secret service of the Treasury Department, called upon the defendent, who is a canal lock-iencer and grocery keeper in North-ampton county, and represented himself as a desier in counterfeit money. He asked the defendant if he had any "old stuff" to sell, as he had a customer for it. The defendant said he had none to sell, but showed Mr. Foure a counterfeit 20 Treasury note. Foure said he would like to buy the note. Defendant said he could have it for $10 in good money, but afterwards sold it tor $5. Several days after this the defendant was arrested and severm other counterfeit notes were found in his possession. On trial. Bull and Palethorp for detendant.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Ludlow.—Prison cases are still before the Court.
On New Year's day Joshua Bradley, colored, called to see Solomon Sloman, also colored, at his residence down town. He was informed that Mr. Sloman was out, and upon this information be walked in. Going to Mr. Sloman's room, he lit a fine penny cigar, sat down, propped his feet up on the lender, and, waiting for the gentleman's return, tranquilly smoked the lime sway. At length his patience was well tried by the protracted absence of Mr. Sloman, and looking at his watch, he remembered an engagement he was to keep within five minutes.

He left for a card to leave behind, but unfortunately had none with him. Necessity is the mother of invention. He remembered and found some other method of letting Mr. Sloman know who had been his visitor. He opened a trank, and took praceable possession of a good lot of clothing, which he speedily converted into ready cash at a pawnbroker's in South street. Mr. Sloman, on his return kome, by the peculiar odor of the cigar smoke and the hungry appearance of his trunk, knew in an instant who had been there. He paid a high compliment to Mr. Bradley, by introducing him to an Alderman, who gave him free transportation to Moyamensing, whence he was conveyed to Court, where he submitted to the humiliation of pleading guilty to a charge of larceny.

THE FRANKFORD FIRE CASE.

The matter of two incendiary fires having occurred in one night, last month, in Frankfort, and two young men, Frank Reimer and George Alton, connected with the Decatur Fire Company, having been arrested upon suspicion of having been connected with the starting of the fires—or at least one of them—has created considerable excitement in Frankford and elsewhere in the city. They were brought up to Court on a charge of arson, and plead not guilty. The affair was thist—Reimer, the elder one of the two, is an officer of the Decatur Fire Company, and Alton was a caudidate for membership. The objection to his admission was his minority. On the night of January 13th, these two young men were drinking freely in the drinking saloons near the engine house.

Shortly before the first fire these two went out of a bar-room, and were away some time. As soon as the fire was discovered, the looisteps of two persons were heard running from the stable that was on fire. Alton had the horn of the carriage at the fire, and Reimer had that of the ateamer, and each one took a very conspicuous and active part in putting out the fire. After this the engineer put wood into the furnace of the engine in case of another fire that night, and Reimer and Alton, with others of that Company, were still drinking. About two o'clock in the morning these two young men went to the engine bouse, and from there were traced to the yard in the rear of the engine house, where the fire was communicated to the mattress factory of Oliver C. Phillips. Also at this fire Reimer and Alton were very active. These facts were the only evidence that could be elicited by a diligent search on the part of Fire Marshal Blackburg; and this the District Attorney said was only a strong case of suspicious, and not one upon which a jury could saiely convict. And, finding the evidence of the Commonwealth deficient, he submitted the bill without evidence to the Jury, who remered a verdict of not guilty of arson.

This has caused cons

AMUSEMENTS.

ENGLISH OPERA.-The repetition of Balfe's popular opera, "The Bohemian Girl," attracted another large and brilliant audience to tne Academy last night, and the performance passed off with the greatest possible eclat and success. Miss Richings, Mr. Castle, Mr. Campbell, and Mr. Seguin performed their respective rotes in a way to elicit the warmest demonstrations of applause, and the encores were numerous and judiciously bestowed. The opera was extremely well put upon the stage, and, altogether, itsrendition was one of the best and most commendable of the present season,

The attraction for this evening is Beilini's beautiful opera of "Sonnambula," very strongly east, and that for to-morrow-for the benefit of Mrs. E. Seguin-is the ever-popular "Linda." No more deserving artist is connected with the Richings troupe than Mrs. Seguin, and we trust the many admirers her fine voice and finished vocalization have made for her in Philadelphia will be present in full force at the Academy on Wednesday evening.

CHESNUT STREET THEATRE.-Miss Helen Western was greeted with an immense andience last night, made up mostly of the sterner sex. The "Scuipturesque" was in her glory as "Cynthia," and we must confess that her new "Cynthia," and we must confess that her new dresses were most magnificent, rich and costly, notwithstanding the fact that there was scarcely enough of the apparei to suit the taste of some people. We observed no improvement in the histrionic efforts of Miss Western. She is more majestic, or rather more massive, in proportions, than ever before, and has iurnished herself with a wardrobe that can scarcely be excelled in this country.

Mr. J. A. Herne, as "Ismael, the Wolf," did not make a "star-like" impression.

Miss Josic Orton played "Starlight Bess" with her usual grace and vivacity.

Mr. Lennox, as "The kinchen," and Mr. Jennings, as "Cheap John," were as funny as could be desired. The rest of the; characters were assigned to the humble histrions of the Company, who deserve no special praise.

This evening Miss Helen Western appears in seven characters in Satan in Paris and Don Caesar de Bazan—an announcement which is sufficient to crowd the theatre.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.-This evening Sheridan Knowles' very popular and beautiful play of The Hunchback will be presented, with a pany of The Hunchack will be presented, with a good cast. Mrs. D. P. Bowers will assume her pleasing role of "Julia," supported by Mr. J. C. McCollom as "Sir Thomas Clifford," and Mr. J. B. Boberts as "Master Walter," The "Modus" and "Helen" have been assigned to Mr. C. Walcott, Jr., and Miss Effic Germon.

There will be some curiosity to see Mr. Roberts' rendition of the role of "Master Walter"—a part we have never known him to alternative night Lock. morrow night Lady Audley's Secret, for the last time.

ARCH STREET THEATRE,-Mr. G. L. Fox was greeted with a very full house last night, and as the performance gave perfect satisfaction, the programme will be repeated this evening. First, Mr. Fox gives us "Philip Garbois," an old French soldier, aged 102 years; next, his inimitable "Clown" in Jack and Gdl; and lastly, the "Tailor of Tamworth" in State Secrets.

On Friday night Mr. Fox takes his farewell benefit, when Miss Fanny Herring will make favorite in New York. AMERICAN THEATRE.—The Variety Company appear in a fresh programme again this evening.

CARNCEOSS & DIXEY Present their new burlesques of La Coterie Ball and the Siances Twins, with other pleasant things to-night.
OR EXHIBITION.—Mr. Veron Fietcher's new
"Venus," just risen from the seas is now on exhibition at No. 1365 Chesnut street. It is well worth a visit.
